

SCOTTISH KENNEL CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Sunday 30th August 2015

PUPPY DOG (2)

1st Barker's Flinthill Pimpernel, very raw at the moment, more together than 2. Kind expression OK for bone & size. Good depth for age, will strengthen up with maturity. Moves sound;
2nd Tibbs' Fydal Beeswing at Raigmore, liked the head & kind eye, a bit shelly at the moment, hope she develops with age. Sound.

JUNIOR DOG (3)

1st Abbot & Wilberg's Larchwold Star Chaser at Kanix, well up to size for age but fits his frame. Kind expression, nicely boned. Stands on good feet. Ample lay of shoulder, plenty of heart room, deep in brisket. Strength in backend. Covers the ground on the move;
2nd Macara's Kanix Kingdom over Cromasaig, another dog up to size for me. Needs to fill out in body. OK for shoulder placement & depth in body. More to come I'm sure. Untidy in front;
3rd Mackay's Fleurfield Steals The Dream.

POST GRADUATE DOG (8,2a)

1st Radcliffe's Sniperay Verandi, won this on his overall confirmation & soundness. Liked the head shape, good in front, enough lay of shoulder & width of chest. Ample ribbing, developed backend, moves sound;
2nd Tibbs & Chisholm's Raigmore Cosmic Star, lighter framed dog to go over. Good in head with ample lay of shoulder. Let down in brisket & strength over the loin. Not as tidy on the move as 1;
3rd Legg & Scott's Narsad's Will Turner.

LIMIT DOG (6)

1st Howe's Millpoint Babe Magnet at Medogold, easy dog to go, balanced in outline. Kind expression. Clean over the shoulder, ample width of chest & the heartroom. Nicely ribbed up, well made quarters. Moves on a sound level stride. CC;
2nd Martin's Sunhouse Anyting Goes, close decision, just preferred topline of 1. Loved the head shape. Stands on a good front with well placed shoulders, good for heart room & strength in quarters. Sound easy action;
3rd Bell's Crookrise The Medler at Owlspoint.

OPEN DPG (1)

1st Best's Shadesett Keep On for Bestina, liked the size & type. OK in head & eye, stands on a decent front with enough lay of shoulder. Let down in brisket, well built backend. Moved sound.

VETERAN DOG (3)

1st Tibbs' Raigmore Dusk Till Dawn, a nicely balanced sound dog, good in head & eye. Clean over the shoulder, depth through body. Good quarters. Sound steady movement;
2nd Moulding's Billsborough Blue Moon, very sound dog on the move. Liked the head & eye. OK in front with ample shoulder placement. Well ribbed up. Strength in rear end. A bit untidy going away;
3rd Leith's Kossar Summer Breeze.

PUPPY BITCH (4)

1st McGilp's Ridanflight Ruby Tuesday at Forthbourne, won this on her overall construction & soundness. Feminine in head, stands on a good front. Enough body for age, sound free movement. BP;
2nd O'Driscoll's Fowington Risque, raw at the moment as would expect at this age, has potential on her side. Kind expression. Will develop with age, sound on the move;
3rd Goode's Medogold Bonny Ivy.

JUNIOR BITCH (3)

1st Gill's Sunhouse Touch Of Class for Diptonia, easy winner here. Lovely to go over, balanced in outline with a lovely head & eye. Good in body proportions. Developing the right way, very sound on the move;
2nd Goode's Medogold Bonny Ivy, 3rd in Junior. Needs to fill her frame, lacks the topline & balance. Sound on the move;
3rd Best's Sunhouse Show Stopper at Bestina.

POST GRADUATE BITCH (6,2)

1st Layton's Millpoint Love Is In The Air at Layways, another who needs to fit her frame. Feminine head shape, clean over the shoulder. Needs to develop through middle & strength up in backend;
2nd Tobin & Moss' Davigdor Diamond Lil, immature all through, kind in eye, OK for shoulder placement. She also needs to develop in body. Sound;
3rd Best's Bestina Betty Boop.

LIMIT BITCH (8,2)

1st Stuckey's Medogold Coralie of Pendan, lovely feminine bitch to go over. Liked the head & eye shape, good in front with well placed shoulders. Let down in brisket, ample ribbing, strong well made backend. Moves easy over the ground;
2nd Pimblett's Pennine Pastiche, bigger framed bitch but fits her well. Good headed with the width of chest & heartroom. Good for depth & strength through body. Well built quarters. Sound on the move;
3rd Martin's Sunhouse I Am What I Am.

OPEN BITCH (7)

1st Dyer & Dyer's Sh Ch Sharnphilly Juici Cuture, I have reported on this bitch before when I awarded her the Group & BIS at Setter & Pointer, enough said;
2nd Edmondson & Robertshaw's Crookrise Agathis, liked her for size & type, well constructed, good front, strength & depth in body. Nicely ribbed, good rear end. Moves sound;
3rd Hall's Gartarry New Moon.

VETERAN BITCH (1)

1st Moulding's Billsborough Blue Star, carrying a bit of middle age spread. But a nice bitch to go over, plenty of heartroom. Kind expression, ample lay of shoulder. Easy action over the ground.
